

BELFOR Property Restoration is currently seeking candidates throughout the United States with Construction Management experience to begin an exciting career as a National Project Manager. This position will include managing projects throughout the United States and will require extensive travel. We are looking for candidates to become part of our National Team to support projects throughout the world after catastrophic events.

Preferred experience or educational equivalent:

- Coordination of a project involving multiple-phases and trades
- Understanding estimates and scheduling
- Blueprint and specification reading
- Coordination of multiple projects at one time
- Working knowledge of computer applications (Microsoft Project, Word, Outlook, Excel)
- Budget management
- Construction Contracts and Legal Aspects
- Construction Safety and Ergonomics
- Sustainable and Energy Efficient Design and Construction (LEED)
- General understanding of building codes and compliance

Other Information:

- Compensation commensurate with experience
- Extensive travel required (up to 100%)
- Company Vehicle, Cell Phone, Laptop
- 401k with matching contributions
- Health, Dental, Vision Insurance
- Paid Holiday, Vacation and Sick Time
- BELFOR is an Equal Opportunity Employer

ABOUT BELFOR PROPERTY RESTORATION:

BELFOR is the world's largest insurance restoration company with offices located in every major geographic location throughout 30 countries. BELFOR is proud to be a "Single Source Solution," offering complete 24/7 emergency response services including: power generation, water extraction, emergency board-up and barrier erection, temporary roofing, mold remediation, document freeze drying, structural drying, dehumidification, hazardous materials, electronics restoration, data recovery, duct cleaning, decontamination services, machinery retrofitting, vital records recovery, property salvage, contents restoration, project management, and consulting services. This single-source accountability allows the most streamlined and cost-effective path to final restoration and getting things back to normal.

The BELFOR record spans decades of successful restoration of commercial, industrial and institutional buildings, documents, and contents. Our proud record is built on the company's leadership in fast-track construction and commitment to achieving superior results for clients. BELFOR's vast experience and record of consistent completions within a guaranteed cost and on schedule have made them us of the most sought-after reconstruction specialists in the world.

For more information please visit www.belfor.com.

